Chase 167 Batting Pads

If you want a pair of batting pads that will provide excellent protection, are comfortable to wear, will last you well, and be really good value for money - then these are the pads that we'd really recommend.

These are really good quality batting pads, and they are the same as we use in our own junior cricket kit bags for our courses.

Kept in stock all year round in the following sizes:

RRP £44.00 Our Price: £33.00 Mens RH

RRP £35.20 Our Price: £29.00 Youths RH & Boy/Girl RH

RRP £27.50 Our Price: £24.50 Small Boy/Small Girl RH & Mini Boy/Mini Girl RH

Newbery Uzi 5 Star Batting Pads

Uzi 5 star batting pads are described by Newbery as "arguably the lightest junior batting pads on the market." - and we agree - they are noticeably lighter than many other pads. We think this makes them particularly good pads for beginners (who can find some heavier pads hard to wear & run in!)

Even though they are lightweight pads, Jon says that they still give good protection which is of course the point of wearing them!

Sensibly priced & perfect for those who are buying their first pair of pads, or those who play a relatively limited amount of cricket. These pads have a bright orange & black trim, which seems to be a hit with junior players. (2 designs are still available, as pictured alongside)

The final thing to mention is that you don't have to worry about whether a player is left or right handed, because these pads have got additional leg protection on both edges of both pads – and as such they are suitable for both right handed and left handed batters.

Recommended retail price: £30.00 Our price: £26.00 Youths, Boy/Girl, Small Boy/Small Girl

Chase Team Thigh Guard

A very well made thigh guard, designed to offer proper protection from stray cricket balls hitting the body.

Adds confidence to your game, and is mentioned in ECB safety guidelines as being a “strongly recommended” item of protection. We’d go further than that – we think they’re essential for EVERY player playing cricket against a hard ball. (After all, a “thud” on a thigh pad hurts a lot less than a cricket ball hitting your actual body!)

We keep these in stock in the following sizes: Youths RH, Youths LH, Boys/Girls RH, and Boys/Girls LH
Recommended retail price £9.90

Our price £8.00

Traditional Abdo Guards

This is the one item of equipment that’s absolutely essential for every male player to own.

We keep these in stock in 3 sizes: Mens, Youths, Boys

Our Price: £2.50
